NEWS RELEASE – DECEMBER 20, 2011

Planning Commission Openings

Applications are now being accepted for two vacancies on the Twentynine Palms Planning Commission. Citizens residing within the City limits of Twentynine Palms who are registered voters and are interested in serving on the Planning Commission may submit an application to the City Clerk's office at City Hall.

Application forms and a statement of duties are available at City Hall, 6136 Adobe Road, Twentynine Palms, between 7:00 a.m. and 6:00 p.m. Monday through Thursday. Application forms are also available on the City website at www.29palms.org.

Deadline for submitting applications is 6:00 p.m. January 25, 2012. Following a review of the applications and possibly an in-person interview, the City Council will make the appointments. For additional information, call (760)367-6799.

The current openings on the commission are the result of vacancies left by Christina Benton, who tendered her resignation on Dec. 12, and Christopher Plummer, who is unable to continue his seat on the commission following his appointment in November.
