NEWS RELEASE – OCTOBER 12, 2009

“WHAT IS YOUR VISION FOR TWENTYNINE PALMS?” General Plan Community Workshop – Oct. 21 – 6 p.m.

Now is the time for residents, business owners, artists, tourism advocates, developers, environmentalists, and all community citizens to speak up and express their vision for the future of Twentynine Palms. On Wednesday, Oct. 21, a community workshop will be held at City Hall, starting at 6 p.m., to discuss the proposed Vision and Guiding Principles for the City’s General Plan Update, the document that will guide the direction of Twentynine Palms for the next 15 to 20 years.

Last May, a General Plan Advisory Committee (GPAC) was appointed by the City Council to provide citizen input for a comprehensive update to the current General Plan. For the past several months, GPAC members have been meeting to define guidelines for the growth and development issues facing the City, focusing their work in three subcommittee areas: Arts, Culture, Community Design, and Tourism; Development and Fiscal Issues; and Environment and Rural Character.

During the Oct. 21 workshop, City staff and the General Plan consultant, Hogle-Ireland, Inc., will present the combined views and goals from the GPAC and receive comments from the entire community to ensure that a shared vision is achieved for the General Plan.

A draft of the Vision Statement and Guiding Principles will be provided for review and comment, and participants will have an opportunity to voice their opinions and provide input on General Plan issues and objectives.

The public is urged to attend the community workshop at Twentynine Palms City Hall, 6136 Adobe Road, on Oct. 21.

Comments can also be submitted online at 29palmsgeneralplan.com, which offers an online community survey and general plan maps and reports. For more information, call the Community Development Department at 760-367-6799.
