NEWS RELEASE – NOVEMBER 16, 2009 U.S. CENSUS BUREAU – JOB OPENINGS

The U.S. Census Bureau will be hiring census takers and clerical personnel for temporary assignments in the Morongo Basin for Census 2010, with pay averaging $16.50 per hour plus mileage and paid training.

Four local workshops by the Census Bureau will provide information and testing in November and December. The application process will be explained and a practice test will be given during the morning session. The actual test will be administered in the afternoon session, and those who want to take the actual test should note the separate times on the schedule.

Residents can reserve a seat by calling the toll-free census jobs line: 1-866-861-2010. Those who experience difficulty in reserving a seat for the workshop will still be allowed to participate and test, subject to space availability.

Test takers must provide acceptable forms of identification. See the U.S. Census Bureau web site for full application information at: www.2010censusjobs.gov. Information is also available at Twentynine Palms City Hall, (760)367-6799.
